FAQs is a true independent drama celebrating queer activism in the 21st century where intolerance still prevails and prejudice can be found everywhere. FAQs follows the lives of a homeless teenage run-away, a greedy pornographer, a boyish “butch” lesbian and a vigilante drag queen who tracks down queer bashers and invites them to face their Destiny.

Destiny takes in India after saving him from a queer bashing and together with her other “rainbow child” Lester, they live together and become a family. After “working all day to put food on the table,” Destiny “drags” up and with her silver pistol, patrols the streets of West Hollywood protecting “her children” and “other people’s children” from the straight jocks who chase gays for fun or bash them for the rush

Against this unconventional setup but fully functioning “queer family” will India find true love or forever be a “cute one night stand?” Will Lester find a girlfriend and shave her legs and will Destiny find herself a man? Anything can happen and in FAQs everything does happen in a very short space of time, climaxing with our queer musketeers freeing themselves from the homophobic bonds of an oppressive American society.

Director Everett Lewis’s filmography: Luster (2002); Skin and Bone (1996), which premiered at the 1996 Toronto International Film Festival; An Ambush of Ghosts (1993), which premiered at the 1993 Sundance Film Festival; and The Natural History of Parking Lots (1990) which premiered at the 1991 Sundance Film Festival and received the Grand Jury Award for Cinematography.
